

Sentence Transformation

---

Complete each of the sentences in such a way that it means exactly the same as the sentence printed before it.

1. John seemed to be very polite.
John gave .....
2. Jane did not finish her work until midnight.
It was .....
3. I had better go home now.
It is time .....
4. As soon as he arrived home, he had a shower.
No sooner .....
5. Although she liked children very much, she couldn't face them any more that day.
Much .....
6. They were interested in nothing except talking about football.
Talking about football .....
7. Although we played well, we lost the game.
In spite .....
8. Mary was never late for work.
At no time .....
9. Very few people are willing to accept this job.
Hardly .....
10. She did not hesitate to ask for more money.
She had .....

Sentence Transformation

---

Complete each of the sentences in such a way that it means exactly the same as the sentence printed before it.

1. John seemed to be very polite.
John gave the impression of being (or that he was) very polite.
2. Jane did not finish her work until midnight.
It was not until midnight that (or midnight before) Jane finished her work.
3. I had better go home now.
It is time I went home (or for me to go home).
4. As soon as he arrived home, he had a shower.
No sooner had he arrived home than he had a shower.
5. Although she liked children very much, she couldn't face them any more that day.
Much as (or though) she liked children, she couldn't face them any more that day.
6. They were interested in nothing except talking about football.
Talking about football was all (or the only thing) they were interested in.
7. Although we played well, we lost the game.
In spite of the fact that we played well, we lost the game.
8. Mary was never late for work.
At no time was Mary late for work.
9. Very few people are willing to accept this job.
Hardly anyone (or anybody) is willing to accept this job.
10. She did not hesitate to ask for more money.
She had no hesitation in asking for more money.