

Personal Pronouns

Complete the sentences, using me, you, him, her, it, us or them.

Example:

Give the book to your brother, please.

Give the book to him, please.

This is Jennifer's book. Give it to her, please.

1. Show your sister the letter, please.
 Show the letter, please.
2. Look at John.
 Look at
3. Look at the building.
 Look at
4. Stand between Peter and Sue for a photograph.
 Stand between for a photograph.
5. Show your parents the photograph.
 Show the photograph.
6. Wash the car, please.
 Wash, please.
7. Call the children in, please. It's time for lunch.
 Call in, please. It's time for lunch.
8. Send the report to Isabel, please.
 Send the report to, please.
9. This is not your coat. I can't give it to
10. These are our books. Give them to, please.
11. This is my book. Give it to, please.
12. We are up here. Can you see

Personal Pronouns

Complete the sentences, using me, you, him, her, it, us or them.

Example:

Give the book to your brother, please.

Give the book to him, please.

This is Jennifer's book. Give it to her, please.

1. Show your sister the letter, please.
Show her the letter, please.
2. Look at John.
Look at him.
3. Look at the building.
Look at it.
4. Stand between Peter and Sue for a photograph.
Stand between them for a photograph.
5. Show your parents the photograph.
Show them the photograph.
6. Wash the car, please.
Wash it, please.
7. Call the children in, please. It's time for lunch.
Call them in, please. It's time for lunch.
8. Send the report to Isabel, please.
Send the report to her, please.
9. This is not your coat. I can't give it to you.
10. These are our books. Give them to us, please.
11. This is my book. Give it to me, please.
12. We are up here. Can you see us?