

Can

Complete the sentences, using can or can't with the verbs in brackets.

Example:

Can he play (play) basketball? Yes, he can.

She can speak (speak) Italian, but I can't.

1. He (speak) French fluently.
2. I (not play) basketball, but I (play) football.
3. (play) the piano? Yes, I
4. (swim)? Yes, he
5. A cheetah (run) very fast, but I
6. (cook)? Yes, she
7. (ski)? No, he
8. (sew)? No, I, but I (iron).
9. (sing)? No, they, but they
(play) the guitar.
10. (dance) well? Yes, she
11. He (not fly) a plane, but he (drive) very well.
12. (play) tennis? Yes, they
13. I (not ride) a bicycle, but my sister
14. (play) the guitar? No, I, but I
(play) the flute.

Can

Complete the sentences, using can or can't with the verbs in brackets.

Example:

Can he play (play) basketball? Yes, he can.

She can speak (speak) Italian, but I can't.

1. He can speak (speak) French fluently.
2. I can't play (not play) basketball, but I can play (play) football.
3. Can you play (play) the piano? Yes, I can.
4. Can he swim (swim)? Yes, he can.
5. A cheetah can run (run) very fast, but I can't.
6. Can she cook (cook)? Yes, she can.
7. Can he ski (ski)? No, he can't.
8. Can you sew (sew)? No, I can't, but I can iron (iron).
9. Can they sing (sing)? No, they can't, but they can play (play) the guitar.
10. Can she dance (dance) well? Yes, she can.
11. He can't fly (not fly) a plane, but he can drive (drive) very well.
12. Can they play (play) tennis? Yes, they can.
13. I can't ride (not ride) a bicycle, but my sister can.
14. Can you play (play) the guitar? No, I can't, but I can play (play) the flute.