

Write the sentences in the interrogative.

Examples:

He is happy. Is he happy?

They are teachers. Are they teachers?

1. Anne is from Glasgow.

..... from Glasgow?

2. She lives with her parents.

..... with her parents?

3. She has a dog and a cat.

..... a dog and a cat?

4. At the moment she is studying French.

..... French at the moment?

5. Yesterday she was at the cinema.

..... at the cinema yesterday?

6. She went to the cinema alone.

..... to the cinema alone?

7. She saw a horror film.

..... a horror film?

8. She is going to visit her grandparents tomorrow.

..... her grandparents tomorrow?

9. They are going to talk about a lot of things.

..... about a lot of things?

10. Anne can play the piano.

..... the piano?

11. She could play the piano when she was five.

..... the piano when she was five?

12. Tonight she is going to bed early.

..... to bed early tonight?

Write the sentences in the interrogative.

Examples:

He is happy. Is he happy?

They are teachers. Are they teachers?

1. Anne is from Glasgow.

Is Anne / Is she from Glasgow?

2. She lives with her parents.

Does she live with her parents?

3. She has a dog and a cat.

Does she have a dog and a cat?

4. At the moment she is studying French.

Is she studying French at the moment?

5. Yesterday she was at the cinema.

Was she at the cinema yesterday?

6. She went to the cinema alone.

Did she go to the cinema alone?

7. She saw a horror film.

Did she see a horror film?

8. She is going to visit her grandparents tomorrow.

Is she going to visit her grandparents tomorrow?

9. They are going to talk about a lot of things.

Are they going to talk about a lot of things?

10. Anne can play the piano.

Can Anne play / Can she play the piano?

11. She could play the piano when she was five.

Could she play the piano when she was five?

12. Tonight she is going to bed early.

Is she going to bed early tonight?