

Personal Pronouns

Complete the sentences by replacing the words in bold type with he, she, it, we, they, her, him, us or them.

Example:

The car is expensive.

It is expensive.

1. I don't like that woman very much.
I don't like very much.
2. I gave Mary my book.
I gave my book.
3. How old are the children?
How old are?
4. Carol laughed at John.
..... laughed at
5. My sister's birthday is in April.
..... is in April.
6. Is your sister married to Peter?
Is married to
7. The teacher is giving his students a test tomorrow.
..... is giving a test tomorrow.
8. The dog is eating my sandwiches.
..... is eating
9. Susan is using my books today.
..... is using today.
10. John and Mary work for me and my sister.
..... work for
11. My father and I are going to London next week.
..... are going to London next week.
12. The man gave the money to my brother and me.
..... gave to

Personal Pronouns

Complete the sentences by replacing the words in bold type with he, she, it, we, they, her, him, us or them.

Example:

The car is expensive.

It is expensive.

1. I don't like that woman very much.
I don't like her very much.
2. I gave Mary my book.
I gave her my book.
3. How old are the children?
How old are they?
4. Carol laughed at John.
She laughed at him.
5. My sister's birthday is in April.
It is in April.
6. Is your sister married to Peter?
Is she married to him?
7. The teacher is giving his students a test tomorrow.
He is giving them a test tomorrow.
8. The dog is eating my sandwiches.
It is eating them.
9. Susan is using my books today.
She is using them today.
10. John and Mary work for me and my sister.
They work for us.
11. My father and I are going to London next week.
We are going to London next week.
12. The man gave the money to my brother and me.
He gave it to us.