

Active to Passive

Change the sentences from active to passive.

Example:

They sell many flowers here.
Many flowers are sold here.

1. People drink a lot of coffee in Portugal.
 .....
2. They clean the office every day.
 .....
3. They speak two languages in Belgium.
 .....
4. They sell one or two cars a week.
 .....
5. They don't know the cause of the accident.
 .....
6. They service the car once a year.
 .....
7. Do people drink a lot of tea in England?
 .....
8. Do they clean the streets every day?
 .....
9. How many languages do they speak in Switzerland?
 .....
10. How many newspapers do they sell a day?
 .....
11. Do they know the cause of the fire?
 .....
12. How often do they inspect the trains?
 .....

Active to Passive

Change the sentences from active to passive.

Example:

They sell many flowers here.

Many flowers are sold here.

1. People drink a lot of coffee in Portugal.

A lot of coffee is drunk in Portugal. .....

2. They clean the office every day.

The office is cleaned every day. .....

3. They speak two languages in Belgium.

Two languages are spoken in Belgium. .....

4. They sell one or two cars a week.

One or two cars are sold a week. .....

5. They don't know the cause of the accident.

The cause of the accident is not known. .....

6. They service the car once a year.

The car is serviced once a year. .....

7. Do people drink a lot of tea in England?

Is a lot of tea drunk in England? .....

8. Do they clean the streets every day?

Are the streets cleaned every day? .....

9. How many languages do they speak in Switzerland?

How many languages are spoken in Switzerland? .....

10. How many newspapers do they sell a day?

How many newspapers are sold a day? .....

11. Do they know the cause of the fire?

Is the cause of the fire known? .....

12. How often do they inspect the trains?

How often are the trains inspected? .....