

Active to Passive

Change the sentences from active to passive.

Example:

The police are investigating the murder.
The murder is being investigated (by the police).

1. They are cleaning the windows.
 .....
2. They are restoring some old paintings.
 .....
3. The plumber is repairing the pipes.
 .....
4. They are resurfacing the road.
 .....
5. The workers are demanding higher wages.
 .....
6. They are building a new road.
 .....
7. Are they cleaning the windows?
 .....
8. What are they restoring?
 .....
9. Why is the plumber repairing the pipes?
 .....
10. What are they resurfacing?
 .....
11. Are the workers demanding higher wages?
 .....
12. Why are they building a new boat?
 .....

Active to Passive

Change the sentences from active to passive.

Example:

The police are investigating the murder.

The murder is being investigated (by the police).

1. They are cleaning the windows.

The windows are being cleaned. .....

2. They are restoring some old paintings.

Some old paintings are being restored. .....

3. The plumber is repairing the pipes.

The pipes are being repaired (by the plumber). .....

4. They are resurfacing the road.

The road is being resurfaced. .....

5. The workers are demanding higher wages.

Higher wages are being demanded (by the workers). .....

6. They are building a new road.

A new road is being built. .....

7. Are they cleaning the windows?

Are the windows being cleaned? .....

8. What are they restoring?

What is being restored? .....

9. Why is the plumber repairing the pipes?

Why are the pipes being repaired (by the plumber)? .....

10. What are they resurfacing?

What is being resurfaced? .....

11. Are the workers demanding higher wages?

Are higher wages being demanded (by the workers)? .....

12. Why are they building a new boat?

Why is a new boat being built? .....