

Complete the sentences with prepositions.

Example:

I am interested in classical music.

1. He is very good tennis.
2. Her mother is very proud her.
3. The man was accused stealing the money.
4. He heard the news the radio.
5. The man insisted paying the bill.
6. The child is good hands.
7. The witness described the scene detail.
8. The man is unfit radical sports.
9. We met her chance.
10. Is the house insured fire?
11. Your camera is similar mine.
12. We are very grateful them.
13. He has been here this morning.
14. Travelling train is preferable travelling car.
15. Don't take him granted. He's unreliable.
16. It is impolite to stare people.
17. She is a soldier profession.
18. They mistook me my twin brother.
19. There is a house the river.
20. They succeeded achieving their goals.

Complete the sentences with prepositions.

Example:

I am interested in classical music.

1. He is very good at tennis.
2. Her mother is very proud of her.
3. The man was accused of stealing the money.
4. He heard the news on the radio.
5. The man insisted on paying the bill.
6. The child is in good hands.
7. The witness described the scene in detail.
8. The man is unfit for radical sports.
9. We met her by chance.
10. Is the house insured against fire?
11. Your camera is similar to mine.
12. We are very grateful to them.
13. He has been here since this morning.
14. Travelling by train is preferable to travelling by car.
15. Don't take him for granted. He's unreliable.
16. It is impolite to stare at people.
17. She is a soldier by profession.
18. They mistook me for my twin brother.
19. There is a house by the river.
20. They succeeded in achieving their goals.