

Intermediate - Advanced

September 2012 Infinitive v. -ing FormWrite the verbs in the infinitive (with or without to) or in the -ing form.Example: I love reading (read) and writing (write).

1. He regrets (not finish) high school.
2. I remember (hear) your mother
(say) that the car needs (service).
3. I don't mind them (stay) in my room, but I won't have them (mess up) my things.
4. I regret (say) that the meeting has been cancelled.
5. If you don't enjoy (eat) the chicken the way it is cooked, try (put) a little of Bolivian Rainbow chilli on it. You might love it.
6. I remember you (ask) me (lend)
you some money the other day.
7. I'm used to (cook) because I do it every day.
8. I look forward to (hear) from you soon.
9. She refused (let) me in without
(show) my ID card.
10. He strongly objects to (make) people
..... (do) things they don't want (do)
despite the fact that when he was young he was made (do) them.
11. She doesn't fancy (go) to the beach so I suggested
..... (go) for a stroll in the park.

12. I appreciate you (not want) (call) me in the middle of the night.

13. Stop (make) a fool of yourself by
(make) silly remarks.

	25
--	-----------

Intermediate - Advanced

September 2012 Infinitive v. -ing Form

Write the verbs in the infinitive (with or without to) or in the -ing form.

Example: I love reading (read) and writing (write).

1. He regrets not finishing (not finish) high school.
2. I remember hearing (hear) your mother say (say) that the car needs servicing (service).
3. I don't mind them staying (stay) in my room, but I won't have them messing up (mess up) my things.
4. I regret to say (say) that the meeting has been cancelled.
5. If you don't enjoy eating (eat) the chicken the way it is cooked, try putting (put) a little of Bolivian Rainbow chilli on it. You might love it.
6. I remember you asking (ask) me to lend (lend) you some money the other day.
7. I'm used to cooking (cook) because I do it every day.
8. I look forward to hearing (hear) from you soon.
9. She refused to let (let) me in without showing (show) my ID card.
10. He strongly objects to making (make) people do (do) things they don't want to do (do) despite the fact that when he was young he was made to do (do) them.
11. She doesn't fancy going (go) to the beach so I suggested going (go) for a stroll in the park.
12. I appreciate you not wanting (not want) to call (call) me in the middle of the night.
13. Stop making (make) a fool of yourself by making (make) silly remarks.